- To reduce risk, save time, and lower costs – the 4matix conversion process is done off-site and does not interfere with the day-to-day use of the legacy ECM application.

Organizations spend thousands, sometimes millions of dollars capturing and indexing their business critical data. As time passes, the systems used to store and manage this data change, innovations take place, organizational requirements change and new cost structures are implemented. Amongst all this change, one thing holds true – the need to keep this business critical data at the fingertips of those who require access. Such access includes but is not limited to customer service, regulatory requirements – or simply business intelligence.

Rest assured that 4matix can preserve your investment - by migrating this critical mass of knowledge to a new repository with newer technology – and meeting the on-going needs of the organization.

4matix conversion services are focused on one thing and one thing only – the successful conversion/migration of business critical data from one application to another. That's all we do- and we do it with precision, integrity and an unmatched level of service.

We are focused in providing a superior level of service to our customers and to our customer's customers. We are a provider of a single service. Our internal resources are focused on making us the best at what we do.

We are not all things to all people. We do not stray from our focus so you know that you have our undivided attention in providing you with the creative, innovative solutions you require.

Choose a conversion company that is a conversion company – full time – everyday. Your customers and your data are too important to trust just anybody.
